

FRONTAGE TAX IS MADE ISSUE FOR G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

Every Plank in Platform to Be Discussed During Series of Meetings

Frontage tax and its benefits to the taxpayers as the G. O. P. sees them is to be made the principal topic for discussion by candidates at all meetings of the Republican campaign which will precede the general election on November 7.

This was definitely decided at a meeting of the Republican central committee and candidates at a meeting at headquarters Monday evening, although other issues in the platform will be given their full share of explanation when laid before the voters during the series of rallies.

From an educational standpoint the party feels that all business men who are interested in the improvement of the city should take up with their employees the frontage tax plan and present a full explanation of it, says a member of the central committee.

Final steps toward campaign arrangements will be taken next Thursday evening at Republican headquarters when the advisory committee recently appointed by Vice-Chairman Harry E. Murray, will meet the candidates. The committee is composed of John Wise, W. C. Achi, Robert W. Breckons, national committeeman; C. M. Bettencourt, A. L. Castle, Jared G. Smith, A. D. Castro, David Kalanika, Kwaifong, Chu Gem and C. K. Al.

At this meeting the various planks in the Republican platform will be discussed, and certain planks will be allotted to each candidate for his personal explanation to the voters during the campaign.

The first Republican campaign meeting will be held at Aala park next Saturday evening, at which all of the candidates will speak. Music will be furnished by a Hawaiian orchestra and comfortable seats will be provided. Beginning Saturday the Republican headquarters in the Campbell building, Fort and Merchant streets, will remain open until the close of the campaign.

Belgian Prisoner In Holland Would Exchange Stamps

GREIST, Sept. 9, 1916.

Editor Star-Bulletin, Honolulu.

Dear Sir: As a Belgian prisoner of war I am taking the liberty to send you a little request.

Having much time to spend here in the camp, I should like very much to make a collection of used postage stamps from all the countries of the world. I should be very happy if you will be so kind as to publish the fact that I will send a war keepsake of the Belgian soldiers in exchange for some nice stamps for collection.

I hope that you also will like to help me to pass some hours pleasantly.

Pardon me for the trouble and thanking you in advance.

I am, dear sir,
Yours sincerely,
ALEX. DE ROCKER.

5th Belgian Infantry Regiment,
3-3, Greist, Holland.

BOARD MEETING WILL ACT UPON RELAYING TRACKS

Honolulu people are today waiting with interest the result of the meeting tonight of the board of supervisors in regard to what it will do concerning the relocation of the Rapid Transit tracks on Kalakaua avenue.

While probably the only official action that will take place will be the reading of the letter from the Rapid Transit in answer to the board's letter asking it to relocate the tracks and the ordering of a reply, it is expected that considerable verbal fireworks will occur particularly around the question of the board paying $4000 as half the expenses of a temporary track.

The Rapid Transit's answer to the board will probably state that as the company has not at present the necessary funds to make the relocation, it will be unable to do so now. In reply the board will ask the railway company to lay a temporary track, and whether in this letter the board will make the $4000 offer which has already been tentatively offered by the road committee, is likely to cause considerable argument.

A. M. Cristy, deputy city attorney, said today that he had compiled a large number of cases dealing with this subject, all of which showed that the city could not spend $4000 for such a purpose and also that by law the city could order them to relocate the tracks at any time.

Mayor Lane is very much against the city paying the money and said today that from investigations he had made the right of the city to make the Rapid Transit move its tracks is unquestionable.

Another business that will come before the board this evening is the hearing of protest over errors in the Kalakaua avenue assessments.

MISS CLEMENS TO PROLONG VISIT AMONG ISLANDS

Finds More to See and Learn
Than She Expected; Guest of Hawaii Railroad

"Clear the track; lock the switches. Here comes Mark Twain's cousin. She is our guest for today!"

Some of Honolulu's visitors are whirled about the beauties of this land in high-power cars; a few take to the backs of dashing steeds and go galloping down Kalakaua; there is a story that Arthur H. Cathart of Manoa had a special Rapid Transit car all the way home recently, but it takes Miss Mildred Leo Clemens to carry the day in the transportation way.

For a brief moment the cousin of the late Samuel L. Clemens, in Hawaii to obtain bits of its beauties for projection on the lecture screen, was queen of the road and she dokaded and exclaimed to her last breath in a private car which the railway officials gave the right of way from Hilo to Laupahoehoe.

"Some people, and I'm one of them, I guess, imagine that the advance of civilization in Hawaii has been considerably retarded," says Miss Clemens, speaking of her first trip away from Oahu, "but they will learn, as I have done, that the island people are running easily abreast with the improvements of the world. Imagine my surprise on being offered a ride on the railroad from Hilo when I found an elegant automobile all fitted for the rails, instead of the dumpy little handcar or gasoline truck which I had expected."

Miss Clemens has found the islands so much more extensive and interesting than she had expected that already she has decided to postpone her departure another month.
